Obituary

Johnny R. Strozier was born on February 26, 1949 in Fulton County, GA. He departed this life early Friday morning on August 8, 2014 at Windsor Garden Care Center in East Orange, NJ.

Johnny was the oldest of two sisters born to the late Castelow Clay and his mother Nellie S. Clay who along with his aunt, Estella Holley preceded him in death.

Johnny graduated from Weequahic High School in Newark. He also attended Morris Brown College in Atlanta, GA, where he earned college credits for his degree.

Johnny was employed at Federal Express at Newark Airport in Newark, NJ. He then worked at New Jersey Transit as a service person until he retired.

Johnny leaves to mourn and cherish his memory: his loving caring and faithful mother, Nellie S. Clay; two sisters, Sheila L. and Lecia B. Clay; niece, Nicole Clay (Eli); nephews, Bryant and Michael Beasley; two great nieces, Alaizha M. Clay and Samiyyah Beasley; and a host of cousins and friends.

What I'm suffering seem so unfair
but one thing is for certain my love
For you will always be there.
Johnny my son you will always be the
Most important part of my heart
Especially the memories, when you were
A baby I held you in my arms.
I'm sure if you had stayed longer
You would have graced me with your charm.
A thousand words won't bring you back
I know because I've tried neither will
A thousand tears I know because I've cried.
Now you're up in heaven with the angels up above
They will take my place for now
And they'll give you all their love
So go and rest in peace now my son
So dear for all my love and memories
I will hold forever

Love Always,
Mommy

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
