My Loving Husband!

My husband had to go because he couldn't stay.

His life ended so fast in just one day.

The times that we had lasted for a day, but the memories I cherish will never go away.

You gave us strength and grace no one could ever take your place.

Although at times I still see your face, some things and people you just can't replace.

My husband (Willie Scott), I love you so much,

You was always there with your loving special touch.

Keeping you inside my heart our love will never change,

May you rest in peace and one day I'll see you again.

Your Loving Wife, Mary Scott

Reflections of Life

Willie Scott, affectionately known as “Buck”, was born on April 30, 1940 in Hemingway, South Carolina, to the late Maybell Lewis and Gullo Scott, however he was raised by HESSIE Scott.

He joined Fort Motte Baptist Church where he confessed Christ as his personal savior. He was united in holy matrimony to Mary Scott and was happily married for fifty-nine years. Willie was unique, honest, loyal and a strong man of his word. Even through his strong will and strictness, he showed love when it was needed. Through his intelligence and great wisdom he taught anyone that came in his circumference the fundamentals of life; how to cherish each other, love, respect and family unity.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his loving wife, Mary Scott; ten beautiful children: Denise, Mary, Shon, Michael, Doney, Max, Debrah, Willemay, Wendy and Jasmine Scott; two siblings predeceased Joe and Martha Lee; surviving, sister-in-law Betty Scott; siblings; James, Lulamay, Mattie and Mary; a host of grandchildren, nieces and nephews too many to name.

To Our Father

Tears stream down our faces,
As we see visions of your face in mind
Our Father, our friend,
our confidant

In our most happiest and difficult times.

We understand you had to leave us
For God wanted you home,
But in our hearts,
we weep with pain

From you suddenly leaving us alone

Your memories we will always cherish
Your love will never go unmentioned

For a piece of us went with you,
As you took your final journey to Heaven.

Today you lie
in a better place,
Free from all your pains
and sorrow,
God has chosen the perfect ANGEL,
To watch over us today
and forever tomorrow

Sleep on Daddy and take your rest,
For us, some how we'll go on,
passing this test
Just know that we will always love you,
But God loves you best.

Love Always,
Your Children

God's Garden Must Be Beautiful

God looked around His garden
And found an empty space.
He looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you,
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
For He only takes the best.

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
On Sunday when God called you home.

Acknowledgement
