Reflections of Life

Very quietly and peacefully on Wednesday, August 6, 2014 God dispatched an angel to escort his son, John home. A city which hath foundations whose builder and maker is God. (Hebrews 11:10)

John William Good, Jr. was born on September 12, 1952 in Philadelphia Pennsylvania. He was the first born to the late John Good and Rose Bingham.

John was educated in the Philadelphia and Newark School Systems.

He married the late Helene McNeil in 1978. He had two sons and from his union with Helene he had two daughters.

He worked numerous jobs with the Philadelphia School System and the Newark Sanitation Department. Because of health reasons he retired on disability.

He had a melodious voice of tenor and sang with his brother and sisters. He enjoyed the Whispers and Harold Melvin and the Bluenotes. He could also do a good hitch hike to the late Marvin Gaye.

John was quite a dapper dresser. He was a loving father and grandfather.

He would like to thank Talikah for her endless care during his illness.

John had a "Guardian Angel" Amirah Good his granddaughter.

He also leaves to treasure his memories his very special companion Beverly and his children: Rajohn, Pharon, Dushawn, Niakema, Talikah and Sabrina; and one son-in-law George; three sisters Clarice, Janice and Demetrice; one great uncle Fletcher thirteen grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Lovingly submitted

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.*

*Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.*

*It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.*

*Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
