Obituary

Dolores Gloria Brighton was born to the late Roy and Olive Brighton on September 6, 1926 in North Plainfield, New Jersey. She grew up in Plainfield and attended public school graduating from Plainfield High School.

She married at an early age to the late Roland Eggleston and gave birth to Harold Roland and Charles Edward Eggleston. Widowed at the age of twenty-two, she reacquainted with her childhood love, Clifton Lee Roberts, Sr. They married in 1949. Both being an only child, they knew they wanted a large family and were blessed with six more children; Olores, Clifton, Jr., Una, Claudean, James and Linda, which they lovingly raised in Edison, New Jersey (Potters Crossing).

Due to her love for children, she made her career as a teacher's aide working for Head Star in Edison, Piscataway, and New Brunswick, NJ. Upon moving back to Plainfield, she worked for Kings Daughters Day Care.

Dolly, as she was known, was preceded in death by her husband of fifty-nine years, Cliff, her sons, Harold, Charles, Clifton, Jr., and James; and her daughters, Olores and Una.

She is survived by: her daughters Claudean and Linda; nineteen grandchildren, forty great-grandchildren and seven great-great-grandchildren.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
