Obituary

What God has done in His marvelous acts was to call home one of His beautiful angels on Friday, August 8, 2014 at 12:59a.m. Brenda S. Jackson Waterman was born August 2, 1963 in Troy, Alabama. As the years progressed she moved to New York City. She was the oldest child of the late Samuel Silers and the only child of Lucile Jackson Hamilton.

Brenda better known as “Doopy” and “OG” was a very strong, independent woman who always kept a smile on her face and others.

She resided in NYC and she attended P.S. 129, I.S. 195 and Louis D. Brandeis.

She was a beautiful person inside and out. She expected nothing but the best from her children.

Brenda leaves her cherished memories to: her husband, Anthony Waterman; her mother, Lucile Jackson-Hamilton. She was a loving mother of Anthony Jackson, Kevin Braxton, Quianna Jackson and Shanequa Jackson. Attentive, grandmother of Kevin Jr., Journey, Karell, Armand, KJ, Vincere and Anthony Jr., oldest sibling of seven from her late father, Jerome, Sharon, Angelica, Bobby, Randy and Isiah. She was a loving niece of one great aunt, six aunts and six uncles, along with a host of relatives and friends.

Your presence here today is highly appreciated for this home going celebration of Brenda S. Jackson.

"God Took Her To His Loving Home"

*God saw her getting tired,
A cure was not to be.*

He wrapped her in His loving arms and whispered "Come with me".

*She suffered much in silence,
Her spirit did not bend.*

*She faced her pain with courage,
Until the very end.*

*She tried so hard to stay with us
but her fight was not in vain.*

God took her to His loving home and freed her from the pain.

Acknowledgement

*The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour.
May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.*
