Reflections of Life

Deborah Elizabeth Jeter was born on May 7, 1950 in Elizabeth, New Jersey, daughter of Anna Harvard Jeter and Robert Jeter. Deborah was raised in Roselle, New Jersey. She was educated in the Roselle Public School System and graduated from Abraham Clark High School in 1968. She was a self-employed child care provider in the Roselle area for many years. Deborah gave her life over to Christ when she joined Resurrection Temple in Roselle.

Deborah Elizabeth Jeter departed this life on Monday, August 18, 2014 at Cranford Extended Care in Cranford, New Jersey at the age of 64. She was predeceased by her mother, Anna Harvard Jeter; a son, Frank Myers; 2 sisters, Roberta Jeter and Ophelia Allen and a brother, Stuart Grandison.

She leaves to cherish fond memories, 6 children, Terrance Jeter (Stephanie) of Linden, NJ, Towanah Jeter of Rahway, NJ, Eric Jeter (Ruby) of Willingboro, NJ, Lucretia Murphy (Samuel) of Rahway, NJ, Hugh Jeter of Elizabeth, NJ and Robert Kunta Jeter of Rahway, NJ; 19 grandchildren; 7 great grandchildren; a great nephew, Jeremiah Harvard who she raised as a son as well as a grandchild, Emery Myers who she also raised; her father, Robert Jeter; 1 sister, Lorraine Harris (Norman) of Elizabeth, NJ; a brother-in-law, Thomas Allen of Roselle, NJ; a sister-in-law, Bernice Grandison of Georgia; special nieces, Dawn Allen-Williams, Robin Slaten (Jerome) and Julia Jeter and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Deborah was a loving mother, grandmother, sister and aunt. Deborah had a heart of gold. She put everyone's needs before her own. Deborah loved the Lord and believed if you pray and keep the faith you could get through anything. She prayed daily for her family and for God to give her strength to care for her grandchildren. Deborah's grandchildren were her life and she did whatever she could to make them happy. If you knew Deborah you would know her love for children. Deborah not only made sure her grandchildren were taken care of but other family and friend's children, too. If you left your child with Deborah you knew that they would be well taken care of. She was the best care giver that you could ever have. If Deborah cared for your child you were considered blessed. She always put the child's needs first. When parents picked their children up from Deborah you best believe they smelled fresh and definitely greased up.

Deborah loved being with her family. She really loved going on the annual family trip to Wildwood. No matter how she was feeling she made sure she was able to attend the trip to make her grandchildren happy. Deborah was always excited about family functions. Everyone knew if something amusing happened Deborah would grace us with her laughter that would definitely light up a room.

Deborah was such a special person who really enjoyed her life and the family and friends in it. Deborah has touched the lives of so many people. The Lord has definitely gained another angel. She has surely earned her wings. She lived her life the way the Lord has commanded us to do. She cared for others and always put everyone's needs before her own. Deborah is a prime example of the the way the Lord commands us to live our lives. Deborah will be missed and never ever forgotten.

“Where Our Sympathy Expresses Itself Through Sincere Service”

PALLBEARERS

Family and Friends of Deborah Jeter

To Grandma With Love

To my Grandma with love
Who God sent from above
A person who gave everyone love
Cared about everyone no matter what they may do
I know they love you and care about you, too
That's why this poem is for you.

Love,
Your Grandkids
