Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*

INTERMENT

William C. Doyle Veterans Cemetery
Wrightstown, New Jersey

Mildred Grant-Hogan was born January 6, 1940 in Charleston, South Carolina, in a small community called "Silver Hill" to the late Abram and Earthie Grant. She was one of eleven children.

Mildred was educated in the Charleston County School system, graduating from Bonds-Wilson High School in 1958.

She came to Jersey City in 1960 and started working for RCA in 1961. She then met Bennie Hogan and they married September 14, 1964, and to this union two children were born. When RCA closed its doors, Mildred went to work for the United States Postal Service as a mail-handler until she retired.

Mildred's love for people became apparent when she and her husband Bennie, purchased B&G Tavern, it was there where she connected with more people, who became important in her life.

Mildred loved life and people to the extent to where she had so many people calling her "Ma or Mama", she would do any and everything to help someone. Mildred was known for the delicious food she prepared and while you ate, you would get plenty of words of wisdom, wit and honesty. She gave it to you "straight with no chaser". She connected with more people when she joined the Eastern Stars New Light Chapter

Asleep

*I've closed my eyes and fallen asleep,
So there's no reason for you to weep;
This is a debt we all must pay,
You will see me again someday.
I've endured pain and sometimes sorrow,
Now I don't have to worry about tomorrow.
But life for you must go on,
You must not worry because I'm gone.
You stood beside me all the way,
When I was down, you knew what to say ...
You always told me, "get some rest,"
Let me sleep now, I've done my best.
So please let me rest in peace,
The tears you're shedding soon will cease.
You'll soon realize this was meant to be,
I thank God because He came for me.*

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
