Life Reflections

Valerie Patricia Hunt was born in Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies, to Linda Hunt and Sidney Hunt on June 22nd, 1946.

Valerie who was also known lovingly as “Pinky” received her political science degree in Jamaica at a very young age. In Jamaica, Pinky gave birth to two children, Gresford and Karleen. Pinky also had a special place in her heart for animals and was honored by receiving three awards for her involvement in the Animal Humane Society.

In 1978, Pinky moved from Kingston, Jamaica to the United States of America. Pinky and her children resided in The Bronx and Queens. While living in New York City, she began working as a security guard and continued working as a security guard for many years. After retiring from her career, Pinky relocated to Baltimore, Maryland. Pinky met and established long lasting relationships with many people in her neighborhood.

On August 18, 2014, Valerie Patricia Hunt was called home where she would be reunited with her son, Gresford Anthony Hunt.

She leaves behind her sisters, Carol and Winsome; her grandchildren, Daniel, Gresford, Pierre, Deondre, Linda and Larenz; two great grandchildren; a host of cousins, nieces and nephews; and her daughter, Karleen.

PSALM 23: A Psalm of David.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the path of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointed my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Acknowledgement

We lost a wonderful woman who can never be replaced. During these days and weeks following her passing, we have been blessed with the loving embrace of our family and friends. It is during these difficult times that we see how lucky we are to have been blessed with a loving family and wonderful friends. Thank you very much for all your sympathy, it is greatly appreciated.
