Reflections of Cardell J. Williamson

Cardell J. Williamson was born December 31, 2012 to the proud parents of Tomasina Cheatam and Carlye Williamson in Woodhull Hospital, Brooklyn, New York.

Cardell moved to 1334 College Avenue, Bronx, New York in 2012. He entered into eternal rest on August 22, 2014 at Bronx Lebanon Hospital. Cardell attended Daycare, and at home he was a happy baby full of energy. He was also known as "Sea Dog", the name given to him by his Uncle (Rudy) James Joyce. He was the best baby anyone could have asked for. He had the biggest pretty brown eyes and a smile to die for. Whenever Cardell heard music he would stop whatever he was doing and throw his hands up in the air and start dancing. Though he wasn't on earth long, Cardell touched many lives and will surely be missed.

He leaves to mourn his Mother; Tomasina Cheatam, Father; Carlye Williamson, Grandmother; Gloria Joyce, eight brothers; four sisters and a host of Aunts, Uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.

Priceless Treasures

*In all of our lives there are treasures
More Precious than silver or gold,
And none of these priceless treasures
Can ever be bought or sold.*

*The beauty that surround us all Along life's thoroughfare
Are treasured gifts given by God
For everyone to share.*

*The sound of children's laughter,
And good and faithful friends
Are treasures we shall cherish
Till our life's journey ends.*

*Love for our children and their love for us
Is more precious than silver or gold
For our love is everlasting,
And can never be bought or sold!*

The Family

Acknowledgement

To all our family and friends that we know and love, and to all that came to us in our time of need, we thank you all for your kindness and words of expression.
