Life Reflections

Farmatta Marie Varmah was born in Bopulu, Lofa County, Liberia on March 12, 1947, to Varmah Siryon and Yatta Sebatt. Marie attended Bopulu Bible Mission School and Suehn Baptist Mission High School, then continued her education at the Tubman National Institute of Medical Arts School Of Nursing, where she graduated in 1966. Upon graduating, she pursued a Masters in Nursing in Holland. Marie then returned to Liberia to begin her career at the Lamco Hospital in the 1970's.

Following her arrival into the United States, she attended St. Joseph College where she received her second Master's Degree in Nursing. Marie began working as a head nurse at a Houston area Hospital in Texas. During her time spent in Texas, God sent Marie a very special friend and brother named Robert L. Carlie known as "Bob". She always called him 'My Bob'. During these years of Auntie's life we were all blessed to have him as part of our family. Thank You so much Bob for being there. We love you so much for being there. God Bless You. Marie also met a very special woman in her life who was a mother to her for many years. Her name was Eva Greenwood known as Grandma Eva". Marie and our family are blessed to meet such a godly inspiring person. Grandma Eva we appreciate all the things you have done for Marie. Grandma Eva made Marie feel she had a home away from home. Marie later relocated to New York where she resided in Queens, NY. She became employed with The City of New York obtaining a position as the Head of the Trauma Unit at Kings County Hospital. She later retired in 2001.

Marie enjoyed visiting with family and friends, and spending time volunteering in her community. She was also an active member of the Bethany Baptist Church in Queens, NY where she became a member of their nursing association. Driven by her faith, she strived to live a life filled with purpose, courage and love.

Marie's life is a reflection of her intelligence and her beautiful soul. Her three Sister's preceded her in death. Marie is survived by a host of half brothers and half sisters, as well as loving nieces and nephews. She will be missed dearly by her niece and nephew, Musu Fahnbullen and Richard McMickens grandnieces Serena and Tahyennoh, her grandnephew Alvin, goddaughter Jenebah, godson Stephen and her beloved childhood friend and sister Barbie Zinne Stewart, as well as her great grandniece Bethany Jalloh. May the Lord smile upon her.

Psalm 121

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.
