Reflections of Life

Born in South Hill, VA to the late Clarence and Nanny Martin, Charles Martin was the fifth of nine children.

He was a former member of the Roanoke Baptist Church of Virginia. He proudly served in WW II as a part of the U.S. Navy from 1943 until 1945.

After serving in the Navy, Charles moved to Maryland for a significant amount of time to satisfy his love for automotive parts and services but his first job was at Pepsi Cola.

Charles soon relocated to Passaic, NJ residing here for roughly twenty-eight years. He had a personal car service, transporting friends and family to the hospital, therapy, doctor appointments and even to get groceries. This was dear to his heart.

Charles is preceded in death by his siblings, Robert, Hurbert, Kate, Maggie and Lucinda.

He is survived by: his wife of thirty years, Alice Martin of Passaic, NJ; sister, Mary Chavis of VA; brother, Marvin Martin of Paterson, NJ; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me,
for now I'm free I'm following the path
God laid for me I took his hand when I heard Him call I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it up with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh, yes these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free!*
