Obituary

Mary Anne Minus, one of five daughters of Mary and John Minus was born on April 10, 1959. On Thursday, September 4, 2014, God extended His arms and led her home.

Mary received her primary education in the Edison, New Jersey school system and continued her secondary education at Middlesex County College. She worked as a Nurse's Aide at Roosevelt Hospital, in Edison and ended her career at Saint Peter's Hospital in Albany, New York before becoming disabled. She was a resident of Perth Amboy, New Jersey at the time of her death.

Mary Anne was preceded in death by her father, John Minus, and sisters: Jean Battieste, Joan Blackmond and Cynthia Minus. She leaves to cherish her memory and mourn her loss: her mother, Mary Minus; sister Evangeline Dixon (Wilbur); nieces, Jawhara Blackmond, Kenya Blackmond, Tara Battieste and Iman Dixon; nephews, John Minus, Steven Dixon (Molly), Alton Terry and Isa Coleman; great nieces Devynn Battieste and Charlotte Dixon; great nephews, Ishmael Capers and Nasir Best, in addition to many aunts, uncles, cousins, relatives and friends.

I Was Here

(Excerpt from Beyonce's "I Was Here")

I wanna leave my footprints on the sands of time
Know there was something that, meant something that I left behind
When I leave this world, I'll leave no regrets
Leave something to remember, so they won't forget

I was here
I lived, I loved
I was here

I did, I've done everything that I wanted
And it was more than I thought it would be
I will leave my mark so everyone will know
I was here

I want to say I lived each day, until I died
And know that I meant something in, somebody's life
The hearts I have touched, will be the proof that I leave
That I made a difference, and this world will see

I was here
I lived, I loved
I was here

I just want them to know
That I gave my all, did my best
Brought someone some happiness
Left this world a little better just because

I was here
