LIVING WORD CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

81 Highway 35

Neptune, New Jersey

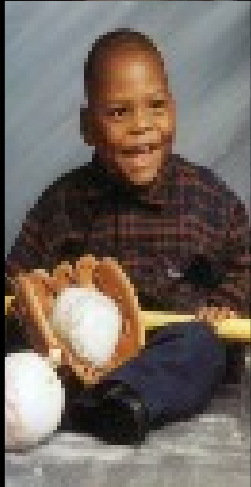

Rev. Lyddale Akins, Officiating

*“Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?
Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? As it is written:*

*For your sake we face death all day long;
we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.
No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.*

To My Beloved James, Thank You

*There hasn't ever been a time
When you weren't there for me.*

*And even when I turn away,
I glance around and see
You waiting there for me to try
My wings to fly or fall,
To cheer me on or pick me up,
In matters great or small.*

*The love you've shown me is the kind
That makes me sure and free,
And I'd just like to tell you thanks,
For being there for me.*

Love, Monica

James A. King of Long Branch, entered into eternal peace on September 4, 2014. He was born on December 17, 1961 to the late Great Jesse James King and Lula McLawhorn-King.

He attended Red Bank public schools and graduated from Red Bank Regional High School in 1980. At the age of 16, he was gainfully employed at JJ King Tire Co. in Red Bank, NJ. James was a loyal and dedicated employee of Red Bank Regional High School systems for the past 29 years. He took pleasure in encouraging young people to always do the right thing.

James enjoyed music, he was known as “DJ Silky Cowboy”. He had great interest in classic cars and was a member of the “LSC Lincoln Club”. He also took great passion in representing for the Pittsburgh Steelers football team. He believed in giving to those in need and was always willing to lend a helping hand. James truly loved his family and friends, and was always known to love the finer things in life with exquisite taste.

James leaves his loving memories to be cherished by his 3 children, Shaundel King of Red Bank, NJ, Shaquashia Agolio of Neptune, NJ, and DaVon King of Aderdeen, NJ; 2 grandchildren, Jaa-Ziya and Jhia Jones; stepmother, Helen King of Winterville, NC; 3 brothers, Charles Payton and Gary King both of Greenville, NC, and Dr. Calvin King of Winterville, NC; 5 sisters, Jessie King-Little of Winterville, NC, Charlene King of Greenville, NC, Tawanda Cooper of Neptune, NJ, and Jennifer Brooks of Eatontown, NJ, and Lisa Noel of Winterville, NC; special companion, Monica Dean; loving Aunt, Annie-Faye Pacshal of Red Bank, NJ; 2 great aunts, Fannie Garris of Paterson, NJ, and Annie Roscoe of East Orange, NJ; 2 great uncles, Al King of Bronx, NY, and Roy King of Teaneck, NJ; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and co-workers.

James leaves a legacy for all to live, laugh, and love! Never putting off today for tomorrow!

Romans 8: 35–39

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?

Shall tribulation, or distress,
or persecution, or famine, or nakedness,
or peril, or sword?

As it is written, for thy sake
we are killed all the day long;

we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors
through him that loved us.

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
