Reflections of Life

Mahlon Joseph Steward also known as “Bunny” also known as “B” and Unk was born on June 17, 1930. He was born in the Lying In Hospital in New York and he was the 2nd oldest of 7 children. His parents gave his nickname “Bunny” to him because he was short and cuddly.

Although Bunny was born in lower Manhattan, he was raised in Brooklyn where he eventually attended Boys High School. He was known for being very athletic. Bunny loved playing street football and handball. He was a very fast runner; he won many local championships in weight lifting, and boxed in the Golden Gloves.

Bunny was 17 years old when he married Janie Green; within this union 3 sons were born Mahlon Steward Jr. (Scrappy), Jamie Steward (Butchie), and Dennis Steward. He later met Stephanie Frye and had 2 more sons Trinelle Frye-Steward, and Tyseen Frye.

Bunny loved playing cards and going to family gatherings. He was a sharp dressed man who impressed all who saw him.

Bunny was always in a good mood and liked to be surrounded by friends and family. He loved life and loved to make people laugh. He was a light that shined on everyone that was graced with his presence.

Bunny was predeceased by his parents, Robert J. Steward and Alnetta Rose, his three brothers Robert J. Steward Jr. (Sonny), Rudolph Bernard Steward (Peanie), and Owen Delenore Steward, his sister Consuella Via (Connie), and his son, Jamie Steward (Butchie).

Mahlon is survived by his sisters Lois Cornell and Alnetta Bond (Sissy). His brother-in-law, John Cornell sisters-in-laws Cary Ann Steward and Delores Steward. His sons, Mahlon Steward Jr. (Scrappy), Dennis Steward, Trinelle Frye-Steward, and Tyseen Frye, 15 grandchildren and a host of great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and his close friends, Diane Loffet and Leilani Clifton who were at his side helping in any way they could.

A Message From His Sisters

“You told me Bunny that you would surely be missed,” it happened already brother and we departed with a kiss. It’s only Sissy and I left. You will be missed Bunny, along with Owen, Connie, Sonny, and Peanie. We love you and you will be forever in our memories and prayers.

A special dad is hard to find,
You dad I'm keeping in my mind,
I wished you could have stayed forever,
But I will never forget you oh not ever.

If dreams weren't dreams and dreams came true,
I wouldn't be here I'd be with you.
Distance is one thing that keeps us apart,
But dad you will always remain in my heart.

A special smile, a special face,
a special someone I can't replace,
I love you and I always will,
You filled a space that no one will ever replace.

-Emma Cartwright

Trinelle

People are made to be loved
Things are made to be used
The confusion in this world is that people are used
& Things are loved.

Love u B
