Precious Memories

Obituary

Tracy Toni Miller a resident of New York was born on December 8, 1965 in Lincoln Hospital to Toni Kate Miller and Larry Thomas Wilkins. Tracy was called home to be with the Lord, September 3, 2014.

Tracy attended school in New York. Later she volunteered to be a Candy Striper at Lincoln Hospital for a number of years, because helping people motivated her to mentoring on a broader spectrum, giving infinite wisdom to guide people in the right direction, and going above and beyond to provide comfort to those in need. After receiving a GED, she further pursued interest in Social work at Bronx Community College. During her early life Tracy aspired to become a construction worker and later a U.S. Postal worker. After working several jobs she decided to become a New York State Correction Officer. She loved her job and spent numerous extra hours as working was her favorite past time. As a young woman Tracy was known as a basketball extraordinaire in the Big Apple.

She leaves to mourn: her only daughter, Precious Toni Lee Brumby; brothers, Edward Arthur Miller who loves her very much, and Malcolm Broadie; one sister, Shalima Cook (William Cook); aunts, Rev. Edwina Greene “where she spend many spiritual weekends”, Brenda Wilkins and Aserlee Wyche, (Steve); uncle, Earl Williams; uncles that preceded her in death are Herbert Miller, and Robert Greene; nieces, Adia Cooks, Erinne Alysse Miller; nephews, Edward Arthur Miller, Jr., Ethan Alexander Miller, Edward Jacob Miller, and Charles Cook; immediate cousins and other family members, Lady LaRonda Williams, Roget Price, Aloma Price, Earl David Williams, and Jasmine Bates, and special friends, Noni Moore, Anita Walton, Robin James, and Betty Cogdell; and a host of other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.*

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
