

In Loving Memory of

Kazemde Ajamu Zahiratu

Coming into being: September 22, 1993

Returning to forever: September 8, 2014

Service

Wednesday, September 17, 2014 - 11:30 a.m.

CHAPELS OF EDEN FUNERAL HOME

110 South Munn Avenue • East Orange, New Jersey

Zul-Latifatu Zahiratu, Officiating

Obituary

Kazemde Ajamu Zahiratu, was the fourth born of seven children from Kcysa Zahiratu and Rahim Arrington and Grandmother Zul-Latifatu.

Kazemde was born in Newark and attended Newark Public Schools. He was a graduate of Vailsburg High School.

The genius of this young man in the sciences and world politics was evident at an early age. He was surely becoming an ambassador and negotiator with words to calm the heated discussions of the day amongst his loved ones and peers. He was becoming his name, The Diplomat, The Ambassador.

Most people loved him for his infectious smile, witty humor and jokes. We loved him because he was the mediator between us and the madness of the day.

Kazemde comes from a very large family, left to cherish his memory are: his brothers, Kamau, Kiimani, Kiijanu, Kiinar and K'zurii; sister, Kaiiya; aunts, Lateefa, Shaheeda, Kcydiima, Kcyiqa and Kcykiyu; uncles, Kcyronne and Kcyied; cousins, Kcyronnda, Kcyziir, Kcyyonna, Kcyziia and Kcymiiya; great grandparents, Ben, Lucille and Florence; as well as a host of relatives and friends who will miss him forever.

Order of Service

Drum Processional

Opening.....Zul-Latifatu

Drum Dirge

Reading.....Brother Andre
Brother Ossie
Brother Razzak
Sister Maureen

Acknowledgements.....Community

Obituary

Reflections (Please limit to 2 minutes)

Drum & Dance Ensemble.....Lamban "Passage of Life"

Final Viewing

Drum Recessional

Final Resting Place

Fairmount Cemetery
Newark, New Jersey

Repast
Irvington Manor
Irvington, New Jersey

You Are Loved Forever

*Without a doubt
You are special,
No words, no deeds
Could summon up
How we feel.
We feel lost now,
We cry now,
We look for you in everything we see.
Your voice remains in our mind,
So we look inward.*

*Love Forever,
Your Family*

Acknowledgements of Appreciation

The family would like to express their sincerest appreciation to the wonderful friends, colleagues and loved ones who have contributed to the many comforting messages, floral tributes and words of encouragement during our time of bereavement.

Professional Services Provided By

CHAPELS OF EDEN FUNERAL HOME

110 South Munn Avenue • East Orange, NJ 07018
ph (973) 674-6100

