Obituary

On March 22, 1963, Tracey Diana Daley was born to Mr. George A. Daley and Catherine V. Daley.

She attended St. Stephens Primary School in Lewisham, London and later went on to join her siblings at Sedgehill Secondary School. She was the seventh child of eight children. When Tracey left school, she attended Lewisham College to further her education. She then went to Southwark College to study typing, office and clerical work. On completion of her studies, she landed her first job as a Clerical Administration Officer at Peak Freans Biscuit Factory in Surrey Quays, London.

By the age of 16, she displayed her adventurous side by exploring the world alone, a fearlessness that she carried throughout her life. Over the years she developed a love for doing hair and soon became the family and local hair dresser. She later immigrated to America in 1985 to join her eldest sister, Ena, her mother, Mrs. Daley and her inseparable little brother, Paul. Once settled in America she went to start her very own family. Tracey's greatest joy was being a loving mom and grandmother to her three wonderful children and her six grandchildren. Tracey made lifetime friendships that became her extended family.

On September 8, 2014, after a long and hard battle with heart problems and diabetes, Tracey was called home.

She leaves behind a loving family to cherish her memories: her mother, Catherine Daley; three children, daughters, Vanisa Mayers, Nicole Richardson and son, Phillip Richardson; four sisters, Ena Richardson, Sophia Robinson, Sonia Robinson and Lenora Daley (Payne); three brothers, Keith Daley, Lenard Daley and Paul Daley; five grandchildren, Zamar Richardson, Azier Mayers, Cayla, Joseph, Dewade Joseph and Nyla Richardson; three step-grandchildren, Deandre Joseph, Devanche Joseph and Dominique Joseph; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Sleep on our beloved Tracey may your soul rest in peace, We Love You!!

*The very breath you gave me,
I wish that I could give it back
See your face just one last time
Let you know that I was your biggest fan
I thought that I had time but, time
Clearly wasn't on my side
You are still my queen I love you mom
Without you inside I die
A special woman you are
Resting in a beautiful place
I mourn I ache you now live through me
But, I will live the same
I'll try my best to stay strong,
I know that's what you would want
But it gets harder each day with each breath I take.
To know that my bigger half is gone,
I'm happy you're no longer in pain
I love you and forever missing you
May your sweet soul rest in peace.*

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.*
