Reflections of Life

Amy Boyce was born in Guyana on March 10, 1925. She was married to the late Samuel Ellis and bore eleven children.

Amy lived her life with quiet, simplicity and strived to follow and train her children according to the principles of God. She found great pleasure in studying the word of God, singing hymns and playing music at family worship. She was a very hardworking homemaker, who supplemented her family's income by doing handicraft work, sewing and farming. She was a bit of a disciplinarian who loved her children.

Amy departed this world on September 14, 2014 at Kings County Hospital.

She has graced this earth with her pleasant presence and has left back her ten children to continue on her legacy, (Esme, Herbert, Leota, Darymple, Odette, Braxton, Moses, Murriam, Amy, Caleb) as well as her grandchildren (Desmond, Donna, Dian, Dwight, Dawn, Donnett, Oneckia, Shade, Romario, Angela, Glennis, Marcus, Omar, Abigail, Abuna, Abena, Solomon, Sheldon, Lexan, Rockel, Eulana, Stephon, Kellon, Kellwin, Carmuletta, Terrence, Storm, Bolan, Tomika, Oleka, Shade, Akellia, Kristoff, Adeline, Akeenie, and others) and great grandchildren (Marlon, Marvin, Madonna, Nikesha, Quincy, Quacy, Jaanai, Jaasiel, Dianna, Joshua, Annowa, Elisha, Israel).

Sleep on mom and take your rest until you are awoken by the sound of the trumpet.

Tribute:

When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile;
Forget unkind words I have spoken;
Remember some good I have done,
Forget that I ever had a heartache,
And remember I've had loads of fun.
Forget that I have stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles with God's help and won.
Forget to grieve for my going,
and fill not your heart with pain and sorrow
But remember the joy, love, laughter and smiles
Although my leaving causes pain and grieve,
my going has eased my hurt and given me relief.
Understand in your heart,
I have only gone to rest a while until Jesus calls.
So dry your eyes and remember me not as I am, but as I use to be.

Acknowledgement

The family of Amy Boyce wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concerns and kindness extended during this time of sorrow. May the supreme comforter our Father who art in heaven embrace us in divine love so that we may experience his peace and joy in our hearts.
