Reflections of Life

Derrick “D-Nice” Myles was born December 23, 1981 to Thelma Myles and the late Raymond Mickens.

Derrick known to many as “D-Nice” was educated in the Paterson Public School system and attended East Side High School. He held several jobs through the years, his favorites were working at Preakness Hospital and Picture People both located in Wayne, NJ.

“D-Nice” will always be remembered for his long “pimped out” hair, his laid back style and million dollar smile. Derrick loved to laugh and loved to make others laugh. He was always saying something comical. He was a “sneaker head” and loved to dance.

Derrick was preceded in death by his father, Raymond Mickens.

“D-Nice” departed this life suddenly on Tuesday, September 16, 2014.

Derrick leaves to cherish precious memories: his mother, Thelma “Vonnie” Myles; three children, son, Marquette Myles of Paterson and daughters, Sanai Myles of Paterson and Michaylah Hicks of South Jersey; maternal grandmother, Thelma Myles, Sr.; paternal grandmother, Ruth Mickens; stepfather, Victor Jones; stepbrothers, Victor, Jr, Rashon and Lamont; stepsister, Tavondja; his girlfriend, Samantha; best friend, David; his boys, Giz, E.L. and Jose; cousins, whom he called his brothers and sisters; and a host of aunts, uncles, other relatives and friends.

So Far Away

I woke up this morning,
To you not being here.
I'm so sorry for not reminding you,
Just how much I really cared.
I would have laughed and talked,
With you a little longer.
I would have gripped your hand
A little stronger.
I would have hugged you,
A little tighter.
I would have made you smile,
A little brighter.
I would have told you,
I loved you a little more.
But I missed my chance.
And my heart is sore.
I'll hurt for sometime,
Because I wanted you to stay.
We recently just shared the same air,
Now your so far away.
But distance never broke our bond before,
So it's not going to start now.
I just ask that you stay with me in spirit,
And show me how.
How to accept the fact that your happy,
To believe that you haven't really left.
To be at peace with the fact God has you now,
To know your enjoying your rest.
To trust your in your All White safe and okay.
To feel you smiling down on me,
Even though you couldn't stay.
I'll see you again,
Whether in my dreams or when its my time.
You'll be missed more than you'll ever know,
Heaven forgot its angel and its your chance to shine.

We Love You Derrick
