Obituary

Lifaite Louine was born in Daborne, Leogane Haiti, on June 27th, 1939. She was the only child of her mother, Hilescia Hilaire, and one of the five children of her father Thelus Charles. She had three brothers, Paul Charles Jean-Baptiste, Francis Charles, Solva Charles and one sister Souveni Charles Lifaite immigrated to the United States in March of 1993, and from that moment she joined Mount Olives Church of God, where she remained a member until her passing. She had three children: Pasteur Joseph Monel Fleurimond, the firstborn, Wilfrid Hercule, and Jocelyne Pierre. Lifaite took great care of all her children and sacrificed to send them to school without the help of their fathers

Upon entering the United States she worked with her first born son, Joseph, to bring her other two children, Wilfrid and Marie Jocelyn, to the United States in 2002. Although she was never formally taught how to read or write, she valued education. She had a solid spiritual and moral education and she made sure to instill those values in each of her children.

Lifaite was a retail merchant throughout her life. Strong and independent she raised her three children as a single parent. She worked very hard to support her children, and was very proud of the adults her children became.

On December 24, 2008, she lost her only daughter through a terrible car accident, and this tragedy began her time of illness. As a diabetic, she struggled very much with this illness and eventually was confined to St. Mary's nursing home.

On September 19, 2014 at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon, she entered eternity.

Lifaite was predeceased by her parents Hilescia Hilaire, and Thelus Charles. Daughter Jocelyne Pierre, Brother Solva Charles and Sister Souveni Charles.

She leaves to mourn and cherish her memory her sons: Rev. Joseph Monel Fleurimond, and wife Chrismene, and Wilfrid Hercule; her grandchildren: Christine Mona Fleurimond Charles, and her husband Elton Charles, Monelson Fleurimond, Carl Modzer Fleurimond, Monique Fleurimond; her great-grandchildren: Sylvanie Charles and Josias Charles; her step daughters Mozele and Yva Fleurimond; her brothers Paul Charles Jean-Baptiste of Florida and Francis Charles of the Dominican Republic; her nephews Emmanuel Charles Jean-Baptiste, Fito Jean-Baptiste, Jonas Charles; and a host of other relatives and spiritual friends from Mount Olives Church of God.

Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away-
her journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets-
this earth is only one. . .
Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth and comfort
where there are no days and years.
Think of her as living
in the hearts of those she touched. . .
for nothing loved is ever lost
and she was loved so much.
