Reflections of Life

Emma Lois Neblett was born February 9, 1943 in Kenbridge, VA. She was predeceased by her mother Addie Neblett Hixson and her step father Edward Hixson.

She came to Newark in the late 1950's and attended South Side High School. Her first job was as a Telephone Operator at Bell Telephone on Washington Street in Newark. She later progressed and became a Quality Control Inspector for Industrial Retaining Ring Co. in Irvington which later became Truarc where she worked tirelessly for twenty-two years before retiring in 2002.

Family and friends meant everything to Emma, but in her later years she became reclusive due to bouts of severe depression. Emma was admired, respected and loved by many people. She was always known for her flair for fashion. As she could definitely dress to impress.

Emma leaves three sons, Christopher, Arthur and Richard (Lateef) as well as two grandsons, Ali Andrews and Shaikh Sammad Brown; and a host of other relatives and friends.
