Obituary

Angelita Patricia Williams was born in Kingston, Jamaica on June 15, 1960 to Ziola Francis and Neville Williams. On July 27, 1972 Angelita immigrated to the United States at 12 years old where she lived in East Orange, NJ.

She attended school at East Orange High where she also graduated receiving her diploma. After graduating High School she attended St. Elizabeth College for 1 year. Angelita then entered the work force and began working at Bamberger's, where she met her husband Jeffrey Allan Jones. Angelita and Jeffrey became one and had a baby girl by the name of Olympia Jones. After the birth of their daughter Angelita went back to school and attended Essex County College where she received her associate's degree. Continuing her education Angelita attended Rutgers University where she received her Marketing Degree. Angelita worked at Rutgers for 10 years, and then extended her work experience where she then worked at Channel for 5 years.

Ms. Williams loved Astrology, reading, and traveling, taking trips to Florida, Texas, California, and Jamaica. She was a beautiful woman inside and out. She loved to help people and loved everyone for who they were. She never had a problem speaking her mind and that's what people loved about her.

She departed her life on Monday, September 22, 2014. She will be greatly missed.

She leaves behind her mother Ziola Rose, her father Neville Williams Sr.; Stepmother Dorothy Williams, her brother Neville Williams Jr., her sister Nicole Williams-Turner, her uncle Gene Graham, her daughter Olympia Jones, her two grandchildren Donovan Murkey and Brianna Brown, her niece Victoria Williams, her uncle Normon Williams, her aunt Beverly Williams, and a host of other relatives and friends.

God Looked Around His Garden

*God looked around His garden
and found an empty place.
Then He looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face.
He placed His arms around you and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
for He only takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb,
so He closed your eyes and whispered
"Peace be Thine."*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
but you did not go alone,
a part of us went with you
the day God called you home.
If love would have saved you,
you never would have died.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
