Obituary

Ida S. Thomas was a manifestation of God's work and word. She carried out her work as a wife, mother, aunt, grandmother, friend, and more with dedication and devotion.

A Time To Be Born:

On November 6, 1930 God gave the world a queen (Ida S. Thomas), whom was born to Harry Smith and Ida B. King in Orange, NJ.

A Time To Live:

Ida started her education at Oakwood Ave. Elementary School. Ida then went on to continue her high school years in Orange, NJ. She attended New York University majoring in Early Childhood Development, where she received her degree which allowed her to teach young children with special needs.

A Time To Love:

While working as a teacher, Ida also worked at a community day nursery. Her goals and aspirations were to love, care, and enable prosperity in the community. She joined Christian Services and later on Tri-City Corporation in Irvington, NJ to help feed the local area. Ida loved helping the community, but she also loved her family. She taught her family how to cook, clean, and be productive on a daily basis. She loved Jazz music and old western movies. One of the things she loved most was to write, read, and do crossword puzzles.

A Time To Leave:

God in mercy and love called Ida home on Saturday, September 27, 2014. Although she is not here in the flesh, she is here in the spirit. Ida will be remembered for her beautiful and loving spirit along with her big and kind warm heart.

A Time To Mourn:

Ida leaves her legacy of life to: her two surviving sons, Harold Thomas and James Thomas; nieces, nephews, grandchildren, host of great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren and other relatives.
