Obituary

Natasha Charise Hayes (“Peanut”) was born on January 16, 1972 in Newark, NJ, the only child born to Carrie B. DeBerry. Natasha peacefully passed away on September 28, 2014 at JFK Medical Center, in Edison, NJ with her mother at her side.

Natasha was a resident of Jersey City, NJ for over twenty-two years. She also resided in Irvington and Union, NJ. Natasha attended Catholic schools in Irvington, NJ and graduated from Union High School. After graduating from high school, Natasha attended Glassboro State College and Montclair State University.

Natasha was employed as a Supervisor of Distribution Operations at the Northern New Jersey Metro Facility in Teterboro, NJ. She was employed by the Postal Service for over twenty years. Natasha was a very dedicated and valued employee.

Natasha enjoyed going on trips with her many friends. She also enjoyed the companionship of her mother on the many trips and vacations they took together. The two of them were inseparable.

Natasha leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted mother, Carrie DeBerry; her loving grandparents, King and Maebell DeBerry of Irvington, NJ; special godmother, Joslyn White; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Afterglow

-Author Unknown

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways.
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun.
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.*
