Obituary

*I gave no one a last farewell,
I said goodbye to none.
For the heavenly gates opened wide
And a loving voice said, "come."*

BELINDA SUE REDMOND had her sunrise on February 18, 1949 in Washington, North Carolina to the late Susie W. Redmond and the late Lemon Wilkins. Belinda accepted Christ at an early age and grew up a faithful member of Williams Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church, Williamston, North Carolina.

Belinda received her early education in the public schools of Martin County where she graduated from E. J. Hayes High School. She received a B.S. degree from Winston-Salem State University. Belinda was employed by the State of New Jersey and spent her entire teaching career working within the Newark Public School System.

Known as "Red" by many of her friends, Belinda was an avid and competitive bowler. She belonged to many bowling league teams over the years and was extremely proud of her team Dangerous winning first place twice in the Andy Ferguson Memorial League. A dedicated member, Belinda was the Assistant Treasurer for her bowling club, the Elite Social Club, for over 15 years. She referred to the Elites as family and they affectionately called her "Sis".

Belinda departed this life Thursday, October 2, 2014. She leaves behind a much loved sister, Rochelle Redmond Ballard of Franklin Park, New Jersey; cousins, Ernest Clemons (Wanda) of Lithonia, Georgia, Patricia Horne of Kings Park, New York, and Larry Mack and Carolyn Story, both of San Antonio, Texas; a dear cousin she considered a baby sister, Pamela Horne Green (Yemi) of Freeport, New York in addition to other beloved cousins and relatives; a very special friend, Clifford Lockley and dearest friends Cathy and Glen Lucas, of Piscataway, New Jersey; and many long-standing friends.

Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled

Whenever I am troubled and lost in deep despair
I bundle all my troubles up and go to God in prayer...

I tell Him I am heartsick
and lost and lonely, too.
That my mind is deeply burdened
and I don't know what to do ...

But I know He stilled the tempest
and calmed the angry sea
And I humbly ask if in His love
He'll do the same for me ...

And then I just keep quiet
and think only thoughts of Peace
And if I abide in stillness
my "restless murmurings" cease.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend would say,
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, whatever the part.
