Obituary

Kevin was born on March 12, 1961 at St. Michael's Hospital in Newark, New Jersey. He attended elementary school in Newark, NJ. He attended military school from 1969 to 1973. Kevin attended and graduated Union Catholic High School, South Plainfield, NJ and Union College in June 1978.

He attended Whitehouse College in 1978, for approximately one year before he decided to join the work force. He worked as a bus driver for several companies including Suburban Transit, Atlantic Express, Olympia Trails and New Jersey Transit. He worked for UPS as a driver for approximately five years. Kevin began working as a maintenance technician in 1999 at the Board of Education, where he retired in January of this year (2014).

He met the love of his life, Stephanie Fair while working for Atlantic Express Bus Company in 1990. Stephanie and Kevin were married on March 15, 1997 and have spent sixteen years together. Kevin loved spending time with Stephanie. They traveled when they could. They enjoyed going for rides and spending time with family and close friends. Kevin also enjoyed listening to old music, watching scary movies and collecting model airplanes and buses. He so loved going to the beach. Kevin is known for his unique sense of humor: aka "Uncle Ty Ty," "Uncle Willow Butt", "Uncle Monk", "Kevy Kev" and last but not least "Stephanie's Honey Do".

Kevin is survived by his wife, Stephanie; his parents, Victoria and William Willoughby; uncle, Richard Dixson; aunt, Clayrine Dixson; god sister, Tanya King; godchildren, Ashley Edwards and Jazzmin Roberts "brothers from other mothers", Nathaniel Sutton; sisters-in-law, Felicia Davis, Patricia Houston, Debra Fair, Melanie Fair; brothers-in-law, Alvin and Kevin Fair, Bernard Davis, George Fair (deceased), Roy Jones (deceased); and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, nephews, great great nephew, his cousins, extended family and friends.
