*Death is nothing at all. I have only slipped away into the next room.
I am I, and you are you. Whatever we were to each other that we still are.*

*Call me by my old familiar name,
speak to me in the easy way which you always used.*

*Put no difference in your tone, wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.
Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.*

Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.

Let my name be ever the household word that it always was,

*let it be spoken without effect,
without the trace of shadow on it.
Life means all that it ever meant.*

*It is the same as it ever was;
there is unbroken continuity.
[There is absolute and unbroken continuity. What is this death
but a negligible accident?]*

*Why should I be out of mind
because I am out of sight?*

*I am waiting for you, for an interval,
somewhere very near,
just around the corner.*

All is well.
