Obituary

On January 20, 1963, Estelle Monk was born to the late Marian and Billy Monk. Estelle was a graduate of Central High School, located in Newark, New Jersey.

Estelle affectionately known as “Weenie” was truly loved by many. Weenie was one person with so many talents, always had something in her hands and creativity on her mind. Whatever was in her hands or on her mind, she would manage to bring it to life, like magic. She was gifted with being a seamstress, poetry writer, teacher, mentor, filmmaker, baker, electrician, furniture maker, mechanic and there was no end to her gifts and talents. If you tried to put all her abilities in a nutshell, it would not fit. Her hobbies was crafts, crochet and being the neighborhood block watcher. Her heart was open to all of those who was willing to embrace her and for those that didn’t well know “Weenie”. She was truly one of a kind and will be truly missed by those who had the pleasure of knowing her.

Estelle Monk leaves to cherish her memory: daughter, Qeasannah Monk; son, Stephon Monk; grandchildren, Zameer and Jada Monk; brothers and sister, Dora, Willemenia, Janice, William, Greg and Penny; a host of nieces and nephews, one amazing nephew, Faheem Monk, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Estelle was pre-deceased by Kevin, Katherine, Barbara Ann, and her parents, Marian and Billy Monk.
