Obituary

Lucille Marie Frazier was born on September 24, 1954 to Betty Mae Frazier and Samuel Daavis in Bridgeport, CT. At the age of ten, she moved to Greenburgh, NY, where she became a life-long resident. Lucille held a number of jobs with various employers such as: IBM, Kraft Foods and Town of Greenburgh.

Lucille's greatest joy and passion came from being a devoted mother and caregiver to her children and loved ones. Lucille was a woman of great strength and purpose. When she entered a room, her grace and presence attracted others to her. Although Lucille had few earthly treasures, she was truly blessed with wisdom and a compassionate heart. This wisdom guided Lucille through some of life's most challenging of situations, she was unique and perfectly designed for the task. No matter how big or small the task, Lucille was always ready to step up and deliver.

Lucille departed this life and went home to be with the Lord on Friday, October 10, 2014 at White Plains Hospital, White Plains, NY.

Lucille leaves to cherish her memory, four children, Tiffany Frazier of Greenburgh, NY, Davon Banks, Tawan Frazier and Aisha Frazier, all of White Plains, NY; three grandchildren, Gerell Jones, Janiyah Jones and Ryleigh Jefferson; her great friend and parenting partner, Gerald Banks; three brothers, George Davis of Macon, GA, Raymond Frazier of Greenburgh, NY and Will Frazier, Sr. of Mt. Vernon, NY; three sisters, Mattie Frazier of White Plains, NY, Emma Frazier of Greenburgh, NY and Betty Frazier of Yonkers, NY; and special and very dear nieces whom she raised, Laura Lovell, La Toya Frazier, Krystal Frazier, Tanasia Mathews and Sheryl Frazier. Lucille was predeceased by her parents, her brother, Howard Frazier; her sister, Mattie Ruth Fitzgerald; and her beloved nephew, Jamar Frazier.

Miss Me - But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for soul set free?

Miss me a little – but not too long.
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me – but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me – but let me go.
