Reflections of Life

Mamie Etta Blakely was born on March 14, 1928 to the late Lenon and Lottie Butler. Mamie passed away peacefully on Wednesday, October 15, 2014 surrounded by her family.

Mamie was raised in Camden, South Carolina where she attended Jackson High School. She became a domestic worker and relocated to Brooklyn, New York in the early 1950's. Mamie was a devoted caregiver and took pride in her work. In 1970, Mamie began her career at Horizon Blue Cross & Blue Shield where she had a fulfilling career as a Mail Clerk. Mamie enjoyed listening to Christian music and reading romance novels.

Mamie was predeceased by her son, Gary Butler, her brother, Lenon Butler Jr. and her two sisters, Edith Whitaker and Laura Butler Bell.

Mamie is survived by: her son, Felix Lenard (Betty) from Sumter, South Carolina, Althamae Mack from Camden, South Carolina and Deborah Blakely (Angelo) from Newark, NJ; six grandchildren and ten great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Interment Services are entrusted to Cooke Funeral Home, Camden, South Carolina.
