Obituary

Hattie Lee King was born May 26, 1931 in Macon, Georgia. She was the third child to the late Ceola and Delma Walker. On October 16, 2014 at Windsor Garden of East Orange where she took her peaceful journey home with her only child, Ossie Lois McRae.

Hattie King attended school in the Macon Georgia Public School System. Leaving Georgia she relocated to Florida and then to Newark, New Jersey in 1957. She worked as a seamstress and then later landed a job at J. L. Hammed School Supply Co. where she would later then retire. Unable to sit still, she went on to become a dedicated Home Health Aid and later a private nurse until she retired again in the 1990's.

Hattie was a very lively and outspoken person, would give you the world if she could, (that's after she told you what to do with it). She was also once a member of the Masonist.

Hattie became a member of New Antioch Baptist Church under the late Rev. James E. Mason. She was a very dedicated member with (Oh Happy Days) as one of her favorite songs. In 1994, she joined New Bethel Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Boyd where she attended until her health began to affect her.

Hattie's outspoken spirit and glowing smile made her hard to forget, along with her love for the color RED. Everyone knew her love for her family. She was often heard proudly mentioning that she was head of FIVE generation strong and living.

Hattie was predeceased by her parents, two brothers, Dan, Paul, nieces and nephews.

She was survived by: her only child her beloved daughter, Ossie Lois McRae; two granddaughters, Tawanna James (Eric James) and Tanya McRae-Norwood (Dexter Norwood); sister, Rosie Taylor; six great grandchildren, Shaniqua Nesmith, Eric Nesmith (Makeda), Cieola Nesmith (Anthony), Bryeanna Jamison (Chris), Olajuwon McRae and Me'Khi Perry; step-granddaughter, Joan; five great-great grandchildren, Elijah, Isaiah, Xavier, Ca'maya and Alyzza; sisters-in-law, Nola and Gertrude; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, god-children and other relatives and friends.

Poem To Grandma / Nennie

*I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an after glow
of smile when day is done,
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days,
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind when day is done.*

Acknowledgements
