Obituary

Elizabeth Knight, 89, of New York City passed away on October 20, 2014, at the New York Weill Cornell Hospital, after a brief illness.

Mrs. Knight was born to Samuel and Mariah Perry on February 8, 1925, in Seminole County, Florida, she being the last child born of a very large family.

After graduating from Crooms Academy and briefly attending college, she decided to give her life over to Jehovah's full-time ministry service.

Elizabeth Knight especially enjoyed sharing the Bible's message of a new world where sickness and death will be no more, and all people will live peacefully and be united as one.

What joy she had also in loving and caring for her family. She was the loving wife of Alfred Earl Knight, Sr., and doting mother of Anthony, her son, who both preceded her in death.

She is survived by: her other son, Earl Knight Jr.; daughter, Cynthia Knight-Brownell; grandson, Frederick Lyndon Brownell; granddaughter, Chisoni Anita Gustafson; grandson-in-law, Scott Erik Gustafson; grandson, Lawrence Land, and granddaughter, Lokai Knight; as well as great grandkids, Reanna Celyne, Quynlen, and Chandler Gustafson; as well as scores of relatives residing in Sanford, Florida.

May Jehovah remember you on the last day and resurrect you so that we may be reunited as family and be whole once again.
