Obituary

Mr. Sylvester White, son of the late Inez White, was born November 12, 1950 in Sumter, South Carolina. He was second eldest son of seven children.

He was educated in Sumter Public Schools then graduated Hillhouse High School in New Haven, Connecticut. While living in New Haven, Connecticut, Sylvester met and married Carolyn Holston. They had two sons, Kenyan J. White and Rashawn White. Later in life, Sylvester had two daughters, Natalie Tyson and Zoria Tyson.

Sylvester worked for Essex County Parks and Recreation Department for many years before starting his own painting contracting business. Sylvester enjoyed reading, traveling, music and having stimulating conversations of all topics including politics, business and religion.

Sylvester departed this life on Tuesday, October 21, 2014. He was predeceased in death by his mother, Inez White and son, Kenyan J. White.

He leaves to cherish his memories: six brothers, Thomas L. White (Maggie), Adelmus Brown, Eric White, Ancin White, Sr., Ulysses White and Darryl White (Domita); and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years but start out bravely with a gallant smile and for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each waking hour in useful ways
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near and never, never be afraid to die for I am waiting for you in the sky!*

Acknowledgement

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.*
