Obituary

Mrs. Josephine Minatee was born on March 2, 1943 to Scadlian Daughtry and Samuel Martin in Rockingham County, North Carolina. On Wednesday, October 22, 2014, she peacefully went on to glory.

In her early years, Josephine worked as a machinist for General Motors in Westbury, Long Island, where she met her late husband, James “Papa” Minatee.

After her marriage to James and moving to Harlem, New York, Josephine was affectionately renamed “Nana” with the birth of their first grandchild, Kwana. With her new nickname, Josephine took up the career of home childcare; from that endeavor she went on to impact the lives of countless young people. Taking them from the cradle to grade school and beyond.

There are some for whom this world is just not good enough. Each day of Nana’s life was a lesson to us on how to live. Where her presence, made a house a home (Nana took not enough and made it plenty. A smile from her instantly healed a broken heart). (You may walk into her apartment feeling empty but you never left that same way).

Josephine leaves to cherish her memory: her daughters, Kay and Cynthia; grandchildren, Kwana, Ashley, Semaj and Jamal; great grandchildren, Kayla, William, Kiara and Madison; sisters, Wilma and Sandra Gayle; nephews, Seneca and Blasco; in-laws, James, Willie and Shana; godchildren, Ceska, Lemiah and Quevon; longtime friend, Alexander; and a host of much loved relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her son, Robert Minatee and her grandson, Edward “Junior” Hamilton.
