Reflections of Life

Daisy Corrine Brown, was born on October 22, 1962 in Paterson, New Jersey. She was the seventh child of the late Marion and Dinah (Williams) Brown.

Daisy was educated in the Paterson Public Schools and was employed at Oakland Care Center, Oakland, New Jersey for the past twenty-one years. She was loved by many at Oakland Care Center for her great personality, generosity and the wonderful care that she gave to the patients.

Daisy was preceded in death by her parents, Marion, Jr. and Dinah (Williams) Brown, her brothers, Carl Williams and Donald "Mickey" Brown, her sisters, Cathie Drakeford and Janice Lynette Brown.

Beloved daughter, mother, sister, aunt and grandmother was welcomed home on Saturday, October 25, 2014.

She leaves to cherish precious memories: her only daughter, Tiffany Brown; granddaughter, Keira Barrero; grandson, Jakob Barrero; one brother, Gregory Brown all of Paterson, New Jersey; two sisters; Michelle Renee Brown of Paterson, New Jersey and Cheryl Monique Brown of Columbia, SC; she is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.

God Looked Around His Garden

God looked around His garden
and found an empty place.
Then He looked down upon the earth
and saw your tired face.
He placed His arms around you and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
for He only takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb,
so He closed your eyes and whispered
"Peace be Thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you
but you did not go alone,
a part of us went with you
the day God called you home.
If love would have saved you,
you never would have died.
