Obituary

Kia Rosheta Nicholson was born February 22, 1972 In Brooklyn, NY to Corrine Nicholson. She grew up in Brownsville, NY and attended public school. She grew up in the Baptist tradition. Kia departed this life October 22, 2014.

Kia relocated to Irvington, NJ and she married Ronald Holt. She had one daughter, Taraya Nicholson.

Kia had a career working security in New York City, at the World Trade Center. She was a very hardworking person and was also looking to better herself. She was continuing her education while working at her job and being a dedicated wife and mother.

Kia was always very supportive of those she loved, very sensitive and giving. She enjoyed laughing and having fun, and she loved to make others laugh. She was a spiritual person who enjoyed helping others and being social.

Kia was preceded in death by her mother, Corrine Nicholson, her brother, Raymond Scott Nicholson and her grandmother, Hattie Nicholson.

Kia leaves to treasure her memories: her husband, Ronald Holt; her daughter, Taraya Nicholson; her brothers, Sam and Ben Nicholson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
