Obituary

Elizabeth Singelton Robinson, matriarch of her family went peacefully to her Eternal Rest at her home on Thursday, October 27, 2014.

She was born September 7, 1914 to the late Mr. & Mrs. Daniel and Lillie Singelton in Sumner, South Carolina. She was the last sibling left in her family. She professed faith in God, at an early age in South Carolina.

She was married to Claude Robinson, who predeceased her. They were blessed with two daughters, Claudina Flore and Willimena Harrison, who also predeceased her.

GOD IS GOOD ALL THE TIME, he allowed her to celebrate her 100th Birthday Celebration of Life on September 14, 2014 at a Gala Affair hosted by her faithful granddaughter, Sheila Harrison which was a joyous occasion for her.

She really enjoyed this event where she received many honoring acknowledgements sent to her, by President Obama and The First Lady, Governor Cuomo, Inez Dickens, Assemblyman Bill Perkins, Assemblyman Charles Rangel, Mayor William DeBlasio and other top officials.

She was formerly employed for many years with New York Hospital/Payne Whitney.

Elizabeth was a faithful member of St. Luke's A.M.E. Church for many years until her health began to decline.

She was loved by all who knew her, a loving and faithful friend to everyone, always available when needed.

She leaves to mourn her loss: four granddaughters, four grandsons, forty-three great grandchildren, seventeen great great grandchildren, two beloved and faithful friends, Beatrice Hooper Hairston and Goldie Stokes, her extended family and friends at St. Phillips On The Park at her residence.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
