We find it so very hard to believe... that you have gone and now we must grieve... We will keep dear to our heart those big eyes of affection... The laughter and talk of our funny childhood reflection... We will miss the loving care when we were sick or sad... Your generous soul for which you always had... We will miss your forgiving and understanding heart... Where all your bonds were there from the start... We will miss all the little ways you showed you cared... For there were so many good moments we shared... Looking back on your life's assorted scenes... We realized you taught us what love truly means... You were the trusted... confidante and best friend... With the love and support we could always depend. We look at your smiling face in all our photos... Memories flood our minds as we touch the mementos... Friends offer gentle words and prayers to console... And spread their kindness for your loving soul... Can it be true what they say of time healing grief... Is it enough when they say death has given you relief... Can we believe what others say of a better place... Family.....
