Obituary

Annie Johnson was born to the late George and Beatrice Johnson of Live Oak, Florida on June 6, 1935.

She attended Douglass Elementary and Douglass High School. After receiving her diploma, Annie moved to Colonial, NJ where she met and married Crawford Black, Jr. in 1956. Out of this union was born six children.

Annie was employed at Burry Biscuits in Elizabeth, NJ until she became employed at the Newark Board of Education where she worked for thirty-eight years.

She joined Metropolitan Baptist Church and later First Timothy Baptist Church where she was a proud member of the Usher Board prior to going home to be with the Lord.

Annie was preceded in death by her loving husband, Crawford Black, Jr., her parents, George and Beatrice Johnson; three brothers-in-law; and one grandson.

Her legacy continues through the life of her children, Patricia Black (James Pride) of Newark, NJ, Karen Renae Robinson (Johnest) Irvington, NJ, Crawford Reginald Black, Michael Black (Essie Townes), Derrick Black all of Newark, NJ and Michelle Thompson (Michael) Killeen, Texas; thirteen grandchildren; eight great grandchildren; three brothers, George Johnson, Jr. of Bradley, Florida, Otis Johnson (Gloria Gresham) and Tommy Thomas of Live Oak, Florida; one sister, Barbara Chambers of Newark, NJ; two sisters-in-law; three brothers-in-law; a special sister, Sarah Lomax (Jerry) of Newark, NJ; and a host of godchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, family and special friends.

She was a daughter, a wife, a mother, a friend, a helper to all who needed help and a lover of God.

My Mother

I can see God's glory in the creation of you,
Whom He predestined and foreknew.
You are my Mother and also my friend,
You are someone I can truly depend.
When I'm feeling sad or blue,
You know just what to say;
Which is to be encouraged, don't give up,
And continue to pray.
Your love and compassion is really true and kind;
In this world today, that is hard to find.
If there was a contest about who's
The best Mother;
I can only speak from my heart...

Dear Sweet Grandma Black

My dear sweet grandmother,
I thank God for giving you to me.
Your beauty and wisdom I love.

Oh, can't you see.
Your loving kindness, tender hugs,
And warm smiles,
Are the things I miss about you
From across the miles.

I appreciate you showing me the right way to go;
When I was a child, I did not know.

Now that I am older, I understand why;
Which was to lead me to Christ, so I might not die.

I thank you for your love and prayers,
That helped to bring me where I am today
"I love you my sweet Grandmother",
Is what I really want to say.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
