

Obituary

Mr. David &ric Yearby, fondly known as "Dave" or "Dolla", was born on May 8, 1987 in Plainfield, New Jersey to his loving parents, Veronica Yearby and Terrence Rhodes. He became stress free on November 2, 2014, and is now with our Heavenly Father resting in peace. He received his education through Plainfield and Piscataway School system, graduating from Piscataway High School in 2005. He completed some college courses at Long Island University and Cheyney University. David previously worked for Roma of Piscataway, New Jersey and the Giant Food Stores of Yardley, PA.

David had a great attitude for life and will always be remembered for his positive attitude, great smile, and jovial nature. David enjoyed reading, conversing with others about various topics and being around his friends. He was always willing to lend a hand to those in need.

Was loved by many, admired by plenty, and respected by all. He was known for his notorious jokes. He loved playing basketball and football. He enjoyed watching movies, the Friday collection, Rush Hour and Boys N the Hood. He was a true fan of Chris Tucker. His favorite TV shows were Jamie Foxx, Martin and the Wayans Brothers. His favorite musical artist was Jaheim. He would always call his mom to find out what she was cooking, (EVERYBODY KNOWS DAVE LOVED HIS MOM'S COOKING....lol). David loved to dress, everything had to be color coordinated and he would flick it up as soon as he was done. As he would say "My style is impeccable, flow so incredible, As I walk to the gates of heaven I can hear GOD saying job well done son you were remarkable...Cheer up my G's, it was time for me to go, I'ma be alright, you know GOD got the most flyest dude ever now sitting on a pedestal." (lol He believed he was the flyest thing on earth.)

Wavid was preceded in death by his grandfathers, Marshall Rhodes and Raiford Yearby.

David is survived by: his parents, Veronica Yearby and Terrence Rhodes; his brothers, Johnathan Yearby, Donnie Yearby and Kashawn Knight; his sister, Tabreeka Yearby; his grandmothers, Wilma Rhodes and Johnnie Mae Ponder (Freeman); his aunt, Taiwana Rhodes; his uncle, Gregory Rhodes; nephews, Jahseer and Jaarell Yearby; and a host of other aunts, uncles, cousins, friends and extended family. He is also survived by his god parents, Bruce and Linda Morgan and god brothers, William and Eric Morgan.

Interment

Hillside Cemetery of Samptown South Plainfield, New Jersey Dave was like an immovable object, like a mountain, no matter how many storms came through he was still standing with a smile. He went out his way for everyone and you wouldn't even have to ask. If you ever told him anything that was worrying you, he would go out of his way to insure that you would be fine. If you were hungry, he would make sure you were fed even though he was in the same predicament. Caring for others first made David happy. He always put family and friends concerns first, before his own. He would lend you anything you asked for even if you burned a bridge already, and would fight your battles if it came down to it, His soul was one of a kind. He was a genuine being that always wanted to see the glow in another person.
