Mae Coleman was born to John and Clara West of Duran, Georgia. Mae was one of three children and attended AME United Methodist Churches until 1994. Mae was always faithful and adventurous, she loved adventure and traveling.

Mae moved to Miami, FL seeking opportunity and new territory. Miami wasn't providing her with any fun or opportunity, so Mae moved onto Baltimore, MD where it didn't offer her anything.

Mae not satisfied decided to follow her older sister, Gerturde Turan to Poughkeepsie, NY. Finding opportunity, new territory and a nursing career, Mae flourished in Poughkeepsie with nursing and helping others. Then Mae fell in love with James Williams. James and Mae created a great life of love and partnership.

Mae and James, two people in love had two children, Leolola and Eugene Williams. Together Mae and James flourished in Poughkeepsie until his untimely death. Mae courageous and strong raised her family in one unit. She married John Coleman and had Johnathan Coleman her third child. After John and Mae divorced, Mae decided to move to find new opportunity and territory to grow. Mae decided to New York City, where she could join the Eastern Stars (Mae was a member for fifty years) and worked at better nursing jobs.

Mae worked at Methodist Church Home until seventy years old, where she retired to relax and enjoy life and family.

Mae went home to God leaving her sister, Lois West; daughter, Leolola Williams; sons, Eugene Williams and Johnathan Coleman. Mae had four grandchildren, three great grandchildren and friends.

On November 5, 2014, Mae layed down to rest in God's house with love, grace and mercy.

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path God laid for me I took his hand when I heard Him call I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it up with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Oh, yes these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free!
