23rd Psalm

Jehovah is my Shepherd. I shall lack nothing.

In grassy pastures he makes me lie down:

by well watered resting places he conducts me.

My soul he refreshes. He leads me in the tracks of righteousness for his name's sake.

Even though I walk in the valley of deep shadow.

I fear nothing bad, for you are with me:

Your word and your staff are the things that comfort me.

*You arrange before me a table in front of those showing hostility to me. With oil you have greased by head: My cup is well filled. Surely goodness and loving-kindness themselves will pursue me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of Jehovah to the length of days.*

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when the day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
