Obituary

Henry Edward Jones was born in Brooklyn New York on April 25, 1933 to the late Mary and Leroy Scott. He departed this life on November 18, 2014 at his home in Irvington.

Henry was raised in Newark New Jersey where he attended Charleston Street School where he met the love of his life, Grace Sistrunk.

After graduating Southside High School Henry and Grace tied the knot on May 11, 1952. (Talk about a lifetime of commitment! (62 years of marriage) That deserves applause.

April 11, 1953 Henry was drafted into United States Army when he held the rank of PFC and served in the Special Command in Ft. Benning, GA. where he received the National Defense Service Medal.

Henry was a very hard worker and held employment for most of his life until he was unable to do so with United Steel Workers Union.

Henry had a few hobbies. Amongst them were: dancing at the Grand Auditorium in Newark, New Jersey, watching those old westerns from the 1930's with his brother, the late John Cobb, and being a Mason with Alpha Lodge #116 F.A.M. of East Orange, New Jersey.

Growing up as a child everyone called Henry 'Mooney' and his favorite saying was "It's All Your Fault"

Henry is survived by: his wife, Grace Jones of Irvington New Jersey; his son, Edward Jones of East Orange New Jersey; his son, Sherman Jones of Irvington New Jersey; and a daughter, Mary Tonya Jones of Newark New Jersey; his favorite cousins, Abdul Bashir and Charlene Jones Holmes; a best friend, Earl Crump; three grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren; and a host of family and friends.

To Those I Love

*To Those Whom I Love And Those Who Love Me
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You must not tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that I have had these many years
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love each has shown
But now it is time I traveled on alone
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust
It is only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories in your heart
I will not be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you cannot see or touch me, I will be near
And if you listen with your heart, you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.
Then, when you must come this way alone
I will greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."*
