Obituary

Keith Robert Harvest was born on June 27, 1952 in East Orange, New Jersey. He was the youngest of three children born to the late Richard and Julia Harvest.

Keith attended schools in East Orange and graduated from East Orange High School. He went on to further his education at Essex County College in Newark, New Jersey where he earned his Associates in Arts majoring in Art. While attending Essex County College he worked in the mailroom and computer lab. He worked at Horizon Blue Cross Blue Shield of New Jersey for eleven years.

In June 1999, Keith married Wanda and accepted her children and grandchildren as his own. He was a member of Peaceful Zion Baptist Church.

He enjoyed all kinds of music and he loved art. He would give his grandchildren drawing pads and encourage them to draw. He also exposed them to all types of music.

Keith had a sensitive spirit, was stern and always did the best that he could do. He will be missed by many.

He leaves to cherish his memory: wife, Wanda; his step daughters Jasmine Murray and Rayna Saunders; nine grandchildren; two great grandchildren; sister, Claire and her husband, Minister Dennis Mosley; nephew, Lee Russell and niece, Tyika Harvest; and many other relatives, friends and associates.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
