Obituary

Evelina Christine Reel entered this life on October 25, 1988, full of joy and laughter. Her parents, Sabrina Odom-Reel and the late Edmond Jue Reel.

Evelina attended the schools of P.S. 11, Shellbank Junior High School, Sheepsheadbay High School and Job Corps.

Evelina would fill a room with love and happiness just by her smiling and being the outspoken person she was.

She enjoyed reading her books and listening to music and always loved being surrounded with family and friends.

Evelina Christine Reel leaves behind her warm memories to: her children, Amir Camron Reel (6) and Hailey Elizbeth Jean-Francois (1); long term boyfriend, Gregory Jean Francois; her mother, Sabrina Odom-Reel; her five sisters, Nicole, Makeba, Tiarria, Lakisha and Shantel; two brothers, Jerome and Russell; seven nieces; four nephews; plus the late Damari Imani Odom and she leaves many more aunts, uncles and cousins, one great grand niece, grandparents both father and mother side, Marie Odom and Evelyn Marks.

Footprints

One night a woman had a dream. She dreamed she was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from her life. For each scene, she noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to her, and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of her life flashed before her, she looked back at the footprints in the sand. She noticed that many times along the path of her life there was only one set of footprints. She also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in her life. This really bothered her and she questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me." The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."
