Obituary

Florence Dix-Turner born June 11, 1938 in Harlem, New York to Orlando and Edna Dix both deceased.

Florence attended P.S. 43 in Manhattan. Her education was interrupted as she pursued a career in Domestic Housekeeping. Her career was short lived for health reasons. Flo is the second eldest of two sisters, eldest Bernice Reid (deceased) and Joan Walker, eldest brother, Ernest Smith, and baby brother, Carl Epps.

A woman of many talents, she was a great cook; short ribs of beef, curry chicken with peas and rice, collard greens and corn bread to name a few. This won her popularity amongst friends and strangers alike. Many times her food menu sold out quickly. Great apple pies, sweet potato pies, peach cobbler, and the like kept us calling back for more. She was a swinger and loved to dance, "ooh baby"! Truly the life of the party.

Mom enjoyed the outdoors, amusement parks and the beaches. Hot fun in the sun!!!

Other enjoyable moments were spent sewing outfits and household items.

Truly a big fan of all types of crossword puzzles, believe me, I'm sure there was a puzzle book in most of her tote bags, along with a handful of butterscotch or peppermint candy.

Florence is preceded in death by her beloved son, Rodney Brown and beloved granddaughter, Jeffrena Bourne Brightman. She is survived by: her daughter, Denise Dix Bourne; grandchildren, Amina, Dyonne, Devon, and Jeffery; greatgrands, Sekhu, Nisu, Gerronimo, Nia, Kanaria and Devon Jr.

Florence will be missed by a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She was loved by all and brought many smiles to the health care professionals who cared for her, and all of her fans at the Forever Young Adult Social Center on Eastchester Road.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
