His Story

Jermaine Leroy Beasley was born on June 24, 1972 at Presbyterian Columbia Hospital in New York City, New York, to Leroy and Brenda Beasley.

Jermaine passed away peacefully at the age of forty-two, on Thursday, November 27, 2014, Newark, New Jersey.

Jermaine attended Berkeley Terrace Elementary School in Irvington, New Jersey, and graduated from Irvington High School, in Irvington, New Jersey, June 1990. While attending High School, Jermaine work at United Parcel Services (UPS) and Verizon for a short period of time.

Jermaine joined the Unites States Air Force Reserves and attended Basic Training in August 1990. He received his military training as a Medical Lab Specialist Technician. He graduated and received his certification in the medical field on November 1991.

Jermaine attended Essex County College in Newark, New Jersey and continued his college education at Rutgers University in Newark, New Jersey. He graduated with three degrees one each in Biology, Chemistry, and Psychology. After graduation he was employed at Rutgers University Research Labatory in New Brunswick, New Jersey as a Clinical Laboratory Research Technician until August 2008. He continued his successful career relocating to San Diego, California at Scantibodies Clinical Laboratory Santee, California as a Cell Culture Manager.

Jermaine returned home to Montclair, New Jersey in May 2013.

Jermaine was a devoted son, brother and nephew. He loved his family and friends. He enjoyed computers, reading, going to the movies. He was an avid Stars Wars fan but most of all he was a “Golden Girls” fan. He would watch TV for hours during the “Golden Girls” marathon series. He would laugh until he got a cramp in his stomach. You could hear his laughter throughout the house. He enjoyed life, laughing, and most of all the people in his life.

Jermaine was preceded in death by was his five Uncles, Augusta, Charlie, James, Willy, and Thomas Beasley, and his Aunts, Gladys Beasley and Deborah Elaine Lawrence, his first cousin, Gerald Rogers and his grandparents, Charlie and Arvirta Beasley and John Sr. and Leola Lawrence.

Jermaine leaves to cherish his memory: his parents, Leroy and Brenda Beasley; his brother, Rashaun Jamel and his wife, Keisha Beasley of West Orange, New Jersey and Shavonne Dominique Beasley of Montclair, New Jersey; aunts and uncles, Joan Dubison, Lorena and Joe Hutchison, Johanna Lawrence, John Lawrence, Jr., Timothy Lawrence, Eunice and Major Montgomery, Carolyn and Nathaniel Simmons, and Maxean Whaley; great aunt, Evelyn Jenkins of New York City, New York and great uncle, Jefferson Jenkins of El Paso, Texas, and host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you. My loved ones, oh so dear. But you see, the Master called me, His voice was very clear! I had made my reservation a heaven bound ticket for one, and I knew that He would call me when He felt my work was done. I know that your hearts are heavy because I have gone away, but when the Master called me, I knew that I could not stay. Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you my loved ones, oh so dear, but, you see, the Master called me and, now I'm resting here. Yes, I've crossed on over to glory and to you all I say Just stay in the hands of Jesus and we'll meet again someday.

Readings:

John 11:25-26 (KJV)

25 Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: 26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

John 14:1-6 (KJV)

14 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. 2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. 4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. 5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? 6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

John 14:27 (KJV)

27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
