Obituary

Oscar L. Clemons (Pete) was born May 10, 1931 in Stokes, NC to his parents, Clarence Clemons and Lucy A. Clemons.

Oscar Lee attended public school in Stokes, NC. After that he worked on the farm, but then he got tired of bending his back in hard labor, so he came to New York. He later moved to New Jersey and worked in a slaughter house until he sustained an injury. He later became disabled

Oscar Lee was well liked and loved by most everyone he met.

Oscar leaves to mourn: two sisters, Dorothy Clemons and Cathleen Hunter of Brooklyn and Bronx, NY; three brothers, William F. Clemons, John Clemons and Clarence Clemons of Newark, East Orange and Irvington, NJ; one sister-in-law, Annie B. Clemons of Grimesland, NC; a host of nieces and nephews; and a special friend, Mary C. Ebron of Newark, NJ.

To Those I Love

*To Those Whom I Love And Those Who Love Me
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You must not tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that I have had these this many years
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love each has shown
But now it is time I travelled on alone
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust
It is only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories in your heart
I will not be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you cannot see or touch me, I will be near
And if you listen with your heart, you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.
Then, when you must come this way alone
I will greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."*
