Obituary

V

Virginie Menard entered into eternal rest on the evening of November 30, 2014, following a period of declining strength and health.

J

Virginie, lovingly known as “Junon”, was born on March 1, 1935 in Acul du Nord, Haiti. Daughter of Ocean Menard and Elisna St. Fleur, she was a long time resident of Orange, New Jersey.

R

G

Junon will be always remembered as a loving mother and grandmother and whose greatest passion was raising her eight children and grandchildren. She was a member of the Bethlehem Adventist Church and she had dedicated her entire life to God.

*Lorsque tous mes travaux et essais sont o'er ,
Et je suis en sécurité sur ce beau rivage ,
Juste pour être près de la cher Seigneur je adore,
A travers les âges soient la gloire pour moi .*

Refrain:

*Oh , ce sera la gloire pour moi ,
Gloire pour moi , la gloire pour moi ,
Lorsque, par Sa grâce, je aurai l'air sur son visage ,
Ce sera la gloire , la gloire pour moi .
Lorsque , par le don de sa grâce infinie ,
Je accordais dans le ciel un lieu ,
Juste pour être là et de regard sur son visage ,
A travers les âges soient la gloire pour moi .
Amis seront là, je ai aimé il ya longtemps ;
Joy comme un fleuve autour de moi se écoule ;
Pourtant, juste un sourire de mon Sauveur , je sais ,
A travers les âges soient la gloire pour moi .*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
