Obituary

Donald Bernard Sutton also known as “RAMBO” was born October 20, 1958 in Jacksonville, Florida to Barney and Yvonne Sutton. He was called home to be with the Lord on Monday, December 1, 2014.

At the age of five, Donald migrated to New York with his mother. He was a precocious child with a lot of ambitions and aspirations in life.

Donald attended DeWitt Clinton High School where he excelled in basketball. He grew up in the area of Prospect Avenue in the Bronx. In the early 1980's, Donald attended Monroe College where he obtained his Associates Degree in Management-Accounting. Early in life, he was employed by Unity Funeral Chapels in Bronx, NY. Donald, also did security for all the NYC Promoters of Entertainment, just to name a few, Black and Gold Prod., Gator Prod., Flavor Ent and many more who loved him dearly. He received the “Security of the Year Award.” Donald's love for music began in the church choir, which inspired him to love old school music, especially, “The Whispers” and “Luther Vandross”.

In 1985, Donald met the love of his life, Toxi Brown, who later became Mrs. Toxi Brown-Sutton. Donald and Toxi enjoyed traveling and singing together the old school melodies. (Let's not forget how he loved to hear his JayZ.)

Donald B. Sutton leaves to mourn: his wife, Mrs. Toxi Brown-Sutton; mother, Mrs. Yvonne Sutton; four children, Dominick, Angelica, Donald, Jr. (wife, Ashley) and Adonis (Shamaine); one step son, Deejay; seven grandchildren, Tanajah, Akeylah, Jahtah, Dominique, Donnisha, Lovejoy and Arianna whom he loved dearly; a host of nieces and nephews, as well as a host of dear friends.

“RAMBO”

GONE!!! HUH!!! NO WAY!!!

He's just not here with us

He's standing on that 2nd plateau

He's simply moving up

He knew it was his time to go

He's standing at the pearly gates

'Cause God has called his name

He said it was his lucky day

So we all started to pray

And what he meant was this.

When God called out his name

That day he made the “Angel's List”

Also known as “Rambo”

We all know that's true

And every night if you look up

He'll shine his light on you.
